

Transition to Collective Impact

United Way of the Lewis and Clark Area

3,000 Resilient People in 365 Days

All people should have the opportunity to be educated, engaged, prosperous and healthy.

Education

Children will be ready for school.

Housing

Homelessness will be rare, brief and non-recurring.

Financial Stability

Individuals will have increased financial stability.

Health

Community mental health will be improved.

Resilient: Possessing the knowledge, skills and ability to overcome challenges presented in various parts of life.